About AusBiotech 2017

The annual AusBiotech national conference attracts delegates from around the world and has long been valued as the best way to bring together like minded people in biotechnology to share information and support the growth and prosperity of the industry.

AusBiotech 2017 will be held in Adelaide from 24 – 26 October 2017 proudly supported by our host state partner, TechInSA. Building on the success of the International BioFest 2016 which attracted close to 2000 delegates, AusBiotech 2017 will feature a comprehensive three-day program, extensive bioindustry exhibition, business matching program, plus a range of satellite events and networking functions.

AusBiotech 2017 is expected to attract a strong contingent from throughout the Asia-Pacific region, the USA and Europe, creating opportunities to network and build business relationships on a global scale.

Connect with the life sciences ecosystem at AusBiotech 2017

Delegates include CEOs and senior executives from biotechnology companies, prominent researchers and leading academics from universities and research institutes from around the globe, entrepreneurs and investors, start-up companies from the life sciences sector and service providers to the industry.

Exhibiting at AusBiotech 2017 provides you with valuable branding with reach across the industry in the lead up to the event and with delegates during the conference.
